FOR WHOM?

Short-term Winter Language ESC will gather 18 youngsters aged 18-30 from Italy, Latvia, Greece, Bulgaria, Slovakia and Lithuania for a 2 week volunteering in Veliki Zitnik, Croatia.

Project is hosted by Outward Bound Croatia.

WHY TO TAKE PART?

---

Volunteers will get an amazing opportunity to learn languages in an environment of non-formal education, getting out of their everyday routine and embracing new ways of learning through active involvement.

They'll also take part in community service to help locals with their everyday needs.

ACCOMMODATION

You'll stay at our Educational center in
Veliki Žitnik, in the rural region of Lika

YOUR PROFILE

- Youngsters between 18-30
- Motivated to actively participate in all the activities during the whole project duration
- Interested to learn and develop their skills, open towards new experiences
- Open towards working in a group and living together
- No qualifications or previous experience is required
- Candidates with fewer opportunities will be given advantage.

YOUR TASKS

There will be 4 English lessons implemented in the local school in Gospić which volunteers will develop, plan and organise together.

They'll also help locals with their everyday needs as a part of community service, as well as organising a family day event for local families to spend a day together with us.

A little work at our educational center will also be done to prepare it for winter!
